FRANCIS KING, Secretary.

We met, yesterday, our young friend, Charles V. Hill, traveling agent for E. K. Conklin, Importer of Brandy, Wines, &c., No. 250, North Front street, Philadelphia. Mr. Hill visited many of our most prominent merchants, and his knowledge of business and accomplished address, won their favor generally.

The first brick of the season have been manufactured by our enterprising fellow-citizen, Jacob Rubush. They will be laid in the new building now in progress of erection on the northwest corner of Pennsylvania and Market streets, by Dr. Kitchen, Dr. Jameson and Mr. Vintar.

GYMNASIUM ICE CREAM SALOON—A room in the second story of the Gymnasium Building, corner of Madison and E. Second streets, has been fitted up very neatly for an Ice Cream Saloon, where the best article will be kept. The Saloon will be opened this evening, and as it is an enterprise of a lady, and a home institution, we have no doubt it will be liberally patronized.

The 8th Indiana, Col. Shunk, left last night for the front. This gallant regiment has seen an immense amount of hard and arduous service, and has gained a reputation for courage and endurance second to none. The plains of Missouri and Arkansas, the hills of Vicksburg and the cotton fields of the extreme South have witnessed their valor. May good fortune attend them on their march to the service, for better men never confronted an enemy.

A SUPERIOR REMEDY—We can conscientiously recommend to those suffering from a distressing cough, Dr. Strickland's Mellin's Food. It is a simple, it gives relief almost instantaneously, and is without any disagreeable to the taste. There is no doubt but the Mellin's Food Balsam is one of the best preparations in use, and is all that its proprietors claim for it. We have tried it during the past week, and found relief from a most distressing cough. It is prepared by Dr. Strickland, No. 6 East Fourth street, Cincinnati, Ohio—(Cincinnati National Union.

NEW CEMETERY—The Crown Hill Cemetery, three miles north of the city, will be dedicated and set apart exclusively for a burial place to-morrow. The services will be interesting, commencing about 10 o'clock. The public are invited to attend. This cemetery is designed, by the company having the matter in charge, to be equal to any cemetery in the country. The natural beauty of the grounds selected will be laid out and arranged to the best advantage by the gentleman engaged for that purpose. This is what has long been needed in our city, and we are glad to see the plan of establishing a beautiful cemetery starting under such favorable auspices.

PERSONAL—Lieut. Col. Wilson, of the 13th Indiana, the Old Guard, arrived in the city last evening direct from Fort Monroe, which place he left last Friday. He reached that point from Bermuda Hundred the day before. Col. Wilson was wounded on the 29th instant, in an attempt to storm a rebel picket line, from which three of our regiments had been driven. The 13th Indiana was ordered to do the work unsupported. They rushed in with their usual impetuosity and carried the works on their fire, but only left them exposed to a terrible flanking fire which literally strewn the ground with their dead and wounded. Col. Wilson was struck by a bullet on the right arm and stunned by a shell at the same moment. He fell close to his company, B, named John W. Rein, crawled to him, and amid a perfect hailstorm of bullets carried him off on his back. Five regiments were sent after this gallant leader of the glorious old 13th, and carried the post.

Col. Wilson says the work of the 13th has been very hard since they have been on the James river. They have been in the front in every fight. That has always been their fate. They numbered 452 effective men when they went there, and now must for fight 125 men. This loss of course includes those who were worn out and unfit for service from overwork.

Major Burton, of the 13th Indiana, was wounded on the same day that Col. Wilson was disabled, and is now at home.

At a time, when such high prices have to be paid for everything we use, it is a matter of importance to know where we can find a nice stock of Dry Goods at the lowest prices. We feel safe in saying that Jones, Hess & Davis are selling their splendid stock of goods at prices as low, if not lower, than any other House in the city.

Their stock of Ladies' Dress Goods is very large, and contains many new and elegant styles. They also have a good stock of Silk, Circular and Summer Shawls, of the newest patterns. They have just received a nice line of new colors in American made prints, which are very handsome.

We are certain that an examination of their stock would result in your making a purchase, and we would advise you to go to No. 304, Fellows' Hall, and buy whatever you want, and will guarantee that you get it at the lowest market price.

PARITY TOWNSHIP DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION—According to previous notice, the Democracy of Parity Township met at the Township House, on the 28th inst.

On motion, James Webb, Esq., was called to the Chair, and L. D. Moody requested to act as Secretary.

The Chair explained the object of the meeting to be to appoint delegates to the County Convention, to be held in the city of Indianapolis on the 4th of June.

On motion, the following delegates were appointed:

Charles Orme, George Green, Charles Larsh, Dr. R. G. Graydon, Isaac Havestick, Samuel Grube, and James Coverdill.

Madame Arabella Hunter is the most sublime prognosticator, as we have heretofore remarked, from personal experience, in the country. She can positively tell what is before a man, and what is before a woman, her fortune, Miss Arabella is scientific, thorough, and we would advise our friends, meditating upon what shall happen them, that they can hardly do better than call on her, and be consulted at No. 20 South Illinois street. Call and see this beautiful accomplished and hallucinating lady. Her stay, we are authorized to state, will not be protracted.

$1,000 to $1,500 WORTH OF BOOTS AND SHOES AT ONE AND TWO YEARS AGO COST—We have made a special counter for the above amount of goods. Ladies' Shoes, several styles; Gent's Boots and Shoes, half dozen styles; Misses', Youth's and Children's Shoes, a large selection.

The cost of these goods will astonish customers. JONES, VINCIGRUE & Co., 31-2c. No. 17 West Washington street.

We were called upon this morning by Mr. Charles V. Hill, traveling agent for E. K. Conklin, Wholesale Liquor Store of E. K. Conklin, No. 250 North Front street, Philadelphia. Mr. Conklin is one of the most extensive importers of Brandy, Wines, &c., in the United States, and we recommend purchasers to the establishment as in every way worthy of confidence.

Florence, No. 1, East 1st street, has just returned from the East, bringing with him the most splendid and magnificent stock of wines, liquors, and cigars ever imported into Indianapolis. Especially his whiskey Old Bourbon, and remarkably good, although we say it ourselves.

From New York.

New York, May 30.—The steamer Cassandra, from New Orleans, with dates to the 21st, and the Mercator to the 23d, have just arrived at this port.

The New Orleans papers contain no late news.

Late Havana advices mention the capture of the Monte Christo by the Spanish in San Domingo.

A dispatch from Wheeling, West Virginia, says:

General Hunter has reduced his army to light marching order, and has moved it from Cedar Creek.

He has issued an order that the army is to live upon the proceeds of the country through which it passes.

Gold opened at 88 and rose to 93 1/2.

Special to the Post from Washington says:—It is reported that Secretary Chase will offer $50,000,000 of the 6 per cent. bonds of 1881 at special auction.

The military news is good. Intelligence expected soon.

The Commercial letter from Butler's Army, dated 28th says:

An expedition of some magnitude is about starting, but its destination remains a secret.

Two or three days will determine it.

The Commercial says it is rumored that a strong clique has engaged to put gold up to 200 during the week.

On Monday, at 1 o'clock the price was 193 1/2, and at 2 o'clock it was firm at 193 1/2.

The demand was almost exclusively at 193 1/2.

Stanton's Dispatch to Dix.

WASHINGTON, May 30.

To General Dix:

Dispatches dated Haverdorn, May 29, state that our army has successfully crossed over the Pamunkey and now occupies a point about three miles south of that river.

Yesterday two divisions of our cavalry had an engagement with the enemy south of Haines store, driving him about a mile upon what appears to be his new line. We will find out all about it to-day.

Our loss in the engagement were 350 killed and wounded, of whom 44 are accounted for. Most of their killed and many wounded fell into our hands.

Another official dispatch dated yesterday at 2 P. M. details the movements of several corps, but up to that time there was no engagement. Earlier dispatches from headquarters had been sent, but failed to reach Washington.

(Signed) E. M. STANTON.

WASHINGTON, May 30, 9 A. M.

To Major General Dix:

No official dispatch from the Army of the Potomac has been received since my telegram of Saturday evening.

A telegram from Sherman, dated near Dallas, Ga., May 29th, reports that on Saturday an engagement occurred between the enemy and McPherson's corps.

The rebels were driven back with a loss of 2,500.

The killed and wounded were left in our hands, and about 300 prisoners, of which Buford's corps lost 100.

Our loss not over 300.

(Signed) E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

From Cairo.

CAIRO, May 26.—The steamer Graham, with Memphis dates to the 27th, arrived last night.

On the morning of the 25th the gunboat Curlew was attacked five miles below Napoleon by rebel batteries of guns, 18 and 24-pounders.

The fire was returned, and a brisk engagement ensued for half an hour, when the rebels were driven off.

The Belle St. Louis from Memphis arrived with 345 bales of cotton for St. Louis, brings one day's later.

The United States hospital boat, in charge of Dr. S. Parish, had arrived from Red river with 200 of the wounded from Yellow Bayou.

Twenty nine loads had moved at Vicksburg with General A. J. Smith's corps.

Some of Forrest's men appeared near Uniontown, Kentucky, yesterday.

There was considerable excitement at Paducah yesterday, when it was rumored that the rebels were coming in, and a force estimated from five hundred to one thousand. The military authorities are prepared for them.

From Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, May 30.—A special to the Inquirer, dated headquarters Army of the Potomac, en route for Richmond via Hanover Ferry, May 27, 6 o'clock, states that the whole army of Grant is in motion, and Hancock's corps in advance, followed by Wright.

Gen. Warren is joining us, having brought up the rear on our former right wing over the North Anna.

Rebels will cross at County Ridge and bring up our rear.

The army moves with a celerity never known before. We will make twenty miles before night.

Sheridan is at the head of the country.

Lee evidently thought we were going to turn his left and give battle on the north side of the South Anna, but he is out-generaled, and by night we will be within four hours' march of Richmond.

The whole country here is planted with corn; the pastures are very fine.

We sweep all before us, horses, cattle, mules, and contrabands fall into our train.

The Cleveland Convention.

CLEVELAND, May 30, 11 P. M.—Judging from the number of delegates already in and those reported to be coming, the convention to-morrow will be composed of several hundred delegates.

There are many Missourians in attendance, but delegations from Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Arkansas, Ohio and Pennsylvania are also very large.

Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Kansas, New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts are also represented, but not largely.

The Germans have delegations from 12 States, some of whom held an informal meeting on Sunday, when resolutions were adopted against Lincoln and in favor of Fremont; against the suppression of the press, in favor of trial by jury, in favor of the Monroe doctrine, in favor of one term, &c. &c.

Noted delegates of the War Democrats favor the nomination of Grant for President with Fremont for Vice President. A victory in Virginia next month will secure the endorsement of this ticket at Chicago.

On the other hand the Fremonters say they want a man whose political record is well defined and known to the country and who has political strength. They claim for their candidate, and profess to believe that he is as likely to be endorsed at Chicago as Grant.

The indications are that Gen. Grant's name will be withdrawn and Fremont will be nominated without opposition.

Among those spoken of for Vice President are Gen. Cochran, G. W. Case, John Logan, Gov. Andrew and Gen. Rosecrans.

Parker Pillsbury brings with him a letter from Wendell Phillips, expressing regret at his inability to attend the convention; complaining that the Advertiser is a failure because it has weighed treasure, blood, and country against slavery; that if Lincoln is re-elected he is re-elected to pursue the same policy and obey the same Cabinet.

He deprecates the Louisiana reconstruction experiment, and concludes that the only plan of reconstruction within twenty years is to admit the black to citizenship and use him with the white, as the basis of States. He closes by favoring the nomination of Fremont or Butler for President, being the first choice.

Among those present are General McKinstry, Ex-Gov. Johnson of Pa., Maj. Haskell, Colonel Gregory, Edward Gilbert, N. O. Garrett, Parker Pillsbury, and a number of prominent Germans from the West.

THIRTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, May 30.

No business was transacted during the morning hour.

The tax bill came up.

The tax on bullion in bar, ingot, lump or otherwise was reduced from 5 to one half of one per cent.

HOUSE.

On motion of Mr. Davis, of New York, the Committee of the District of Columbia was instructed to inquire into the condition of the Washington National Monument.

The House then resumed consideration of the following resolution, heretofore submitted by Mr. Collins:

That this war is not waged on our part in any spirit of oppression, nor for any purpose of conquest, or subjugation for the purpose of overthrowing rights or established institutions, but to defend the supremacy of the Constitution, to preserve the Union with all its dignity and equality of States unimpaired, and as soon as the objects are accomplished the war must cease.

Mr. Collins said his resolution embraced the main features of the one offered by Mr. Crittenden and adopted at the commencement of the 37th Congress.

Mr. Fernando Wood moved to lay the resolution on the table.

The motion was disagreed to by a vote of 27.

Mr. Morrill moved to refer the resolution to the Committee on the Rebellious States, which motion prevailed.

A resolution was offered that the President be instructed to create 100,000 extra and uniformed armistice, so that in the meantime a permanent armistice, could be called to settle the existing difficulties. Objected to.

No Alcohol or Bad Whisky!

They WILL CURE the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hooftland's German Bitters (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon the public a flood of cheap nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonic, Stimulant, &c. &c.

Beware of the humbug of alcohol of all preparations in pills, bottles, or any other form. It is a deadly poison, and will destroy the system, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Do you want something to strengthen you?

Do you want a good appetite?

Do you want to build up your constitution?

Do you want to feel well?

Do you want to get rid of nervousness?

Do you want energy?

Do you want to sleep well?

Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If you do use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Nelson Brown, D. D., Editor of the Eccelesia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not a doctor, or a recommended patent medicine in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not take the medicine he believes himself to have received from an simple preparation, in the hope that it may contribute to the benefit of others.

Do this more really in regard to Hooftland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were really an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shomaker, of this city, for a bottle of the Bitters, and for his encouragement to try it, as, when suffering from great and long continued debility, the use of three bottles of this Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by mental vigor and restoration to a degree of bodily and moral vigor which I had not felt for months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

I am, Sir, very respectfully, YRS. J. NELSON BROWN.
